As Alabama's State Historic Preservation Office, the staff of the Alabama Historical Commission work to preserve, protect, and interpret Alabama's historic places. By working with other state and federal agencies, local communities, and interested citizens, the AHC seeks to build a greater awareness of Alabama's past and to encourage the long-term preservation of Alabama's significant cultural resources. Through its various programs the AHC strives to show how historic resources contribute to the heritage, economy, and quality of life of all Alabamians.

The Alabama Historical Commission (SHPO) is looking to hire a historian/architectural historian whose primary responsibility will be to review and comment on Alabama Department of Transportation projects undertaken pursuant to Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966. Applicants must have a knowledge of Alabama history, an understanding of Section 106 review, and experience in evaluating properties for the National Register of Historic Places.

Typical responsibilities includes reviewing proposed project documents, including cultural resource assessments, which have been submitted by federal agencies or their agents. This position will utilize their broad knowledge of Alabama architecture and history to determine the need to conduct architectural or historic surveys and to evaluate historic properties for significance. The position will provide an opinion of project effect and how to avoid, minimize, or mitigate effects to historic properties, will respond to inquiries and provides guidance, clarification and recommendations concerning historic preservation compliance with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966; and will maintain files and/or computer databases. This position will conduct site visits and participate in special projects as necessary. The person filling this position must be able to maintain good and positive working relationships with the public, professional consultants, and employees of state and federal agencies.

The applicant must meet the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards in the area of History or Architectural History.
