

Legislative Update for March 6-March 8, 2018

Senate Bill 11 (Prohibit renaming Schools)
Committee: Education and Youth Affairs

Sponsor: Senator Brewbaker

The Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017 prohibits certain schools located on public property and erected for, or named or dedicated in honor of, an event, a person, a group, a movement, or military service, from being renamed.

This bill would remove the prohibition against the renaming of those schools and would specifically exempt all preK-12, postsecondary, and higher education institutions and facilities from the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017.

Update: No changes this week

House Bill 15 (Opt out of Alabama Memorial Preservation Act) Sponsor: Representative Givan
Committee: State Government

Under existing law, certain entities and government agencies are exempt from the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017.

This bill would authorize any municipality to opt out of the provisions of the act upon vote of the governing body of the municipality.

Update: No changes this week

House Bill 16 (Repeal Memorial Preservation Act)
Committee: State Government

Sponsor: Representative Givan

Under existing law, the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017 provides for the preservation of certain architecturally significant buildings, memorial buildings, memorial streets, and monuments on public property, as well as memorial schools.

This bill would repeal the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017.

Update: No changes this week

House Bill 283 (Memorial Preservation Act not to apply to a Class I Municipality) Sponsor: Rep. Givan
Committee: State Government

Under existing law, the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017 provides for the preservation of certain architecturally significant buildings, memorial buildings, memorial streets, and monuments on public property, as well as memorial schools.

This bill would provide that the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017 does not apply to a Class I Municipality.

Update: No changes this week

Senate Bill 8 (Cultural Resources Underwater Act)
Committee: Governmental Affairs

Sponsor: Senator McClendon

Under existing law, all abandoned shipwrecks or remains of those ships and all underwater treasures and artifacts that are contained in or on submerged lands belonging to the State of Alabama, and have remained unclaimed for 50 years, are cultural resources that are eligible for, or listed in, the National Register of Historic Places or the Alabama Register of Landmarks and Heritage.

This bill would remove the language that includes the Alabama Register of Landmarks and Heritage.

Update: This bill passed a 3rd reading in the Senate on 1/25 and was referred to the State Government Committee in the House. Bill will be heard in State Government Committee on 2/21 in Room 429 at 3:00pm. SB 8 was voted out of State Government Committee on 2/21 and is awaiting 3rd reading in the second House.
